MARKEY'S ATTEND CEO FUNCTION

Saginaw, MI. — Brigitte H. Markey, CEO and John C. Markey, CBSE, Vice President, of Markey Maintenance Services, Inc. DBA: Absolute! Building Maintenance, Educlean Services and Medi+CLEAN Environmental Housekeeping recently returned from the Building Service Contractors Association International 2006 Chief Executive Officer Seminar held at the Princeville Resort in Kauai, Hawaii. The annual series of CEO Seminars addresses subjects of interest such as leadership, strategic planning, financial issues, sales, personal and business growth, and formal and informal networking opportunities for participants.

The BSCAI 2006 CEO Seminar featured two nationally known presenters, Steve Yastrow who spoke on "Brand Harmony: Why everyone in the company needs to Be The Brand" and Shannon Waller from Unique Ability® who focused on "Talent and Passion For Breakthrough Results" CEO Seminar participants learned which activities to focus on to maximize energy and get the best results, then create an action plan to leverage talents and make the best use of management teams.

Markey Maintenance Services, Inc. through its' divisions employs over 215 associates and serves a Mid-Michigan geographical area from Fenton to Standish and Clare to Port Huron. The company provides commercial housekeeping services to local schools, businesses, professional offices, medical institutions and industrial facilities.
