FIRM PASSES PEER AUDIT

Saginaw, MI. — Markey Maintenance Services, Inc. DBA: Absolute! Building Maintenance, Educlean Services, and Medi+CLEAN Environmental Housekeeping was the focus of a four day Peer Review Audit held at the Four Points Hotel and the firm's corporate offices in Saginaw.

Owners and corporate officers from peer building service contractors were on site for four days to review operations, financial & accounting records, marketing plans, conduct personal interviews with the firm's management staff, supervisors, and clients. The group also visited several local businesses that utilize Markey Maintenance Service.

Peer member companies included Red River Sanitors of Shreveport LA; FMI Services Group of Charleston, SC; Crossgate Services of Nashville, TN; Professional Building Services of Quad Cities, IA; and Stathakis Services of Trenton, MI.

Each member company of the peer group is audited approximately every three years to assure that the host company is operating at its peak efficiency while providing excellent customer service. Markey Maintenance Service was one of the founding members of the peer review group which was established in 1993 and is one of the oldest building maintenance services peer groups in the United States.

Markey Maintenance Services employs 210 associates and serves a geographical area from Fenton to Standish and Clare to Port Huron. It provides housekeeping services to local well known facilities such as WNEM, WJRT, WSMH, WEYI, SBC, Midland Daily News, McDonald Broadcasting, Next Media, MidMichigan Health Development Associates, St. Stephen Parish School, Morley Companies and TheDOW Event Center.
